Dear Mr Fortes,

I owe you a reply to your letter of the 13/7/33 and though it is somewhat late in the day to acknowledge same now, I shall humbly do so.

My excuse is just pressure of work, and having mislaid your letter with the good intentions of replying at the earliest, time just kept on passing by.

Anyhow, I am doing it now, and <sup>now</sup> thanking you for the snaps that you have sent on to <sup>which I</sup> me ^ received, and shall attend to same.

To keep up the continuity of Jerry's correspondence I am still posting you copies of his letters received in South Africa, and should <sup>you</sup> have received some of them in the original, it will not be my fault. Anyhow, these letters are very interesting.

Kind regards to Mrs Fortes and yourself.
Yours sincerely
